

FEBRUARY, 2019

The PCHA Board of Directors met on Friday night, January 18, 2019, and discussed several items for the upcoming show season. Dues were raised by $10 and are now $35 for single memberships and $45 for family. It was also decided that PCHA membership would be required for all owners and riders competing in Panhandle-produced shows.

This year, our April show date falls on Easter weekend, so we discussed whether to proceed with this show or not. It was decided to change the April show to a Friday-Saturday show to allow members to spend Easter Sunday with their families. There will be no Youth class on Friday, per NCHA rules.

We are working on having a show on May 18-19 in conjunction with the Panhandle Reined Cow Horse Association. The PCHA board will meet with the PRCHA president on February 22 to discuss the specifics and decide if this is doable.

Another addition to this year's show schedule will be the addition of an Open and Non Pro Futurity (3-yr-old) class to our August 3-4 show. Fees will be $100 entry fee and $100 cattle charge, with no added money. Office and video charges will be the same as in all other classes.
